VOL. XXXV.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1907.

NO. 58.

KINGSVILLE.

Rev. J. G. Livingston is expected Sunday to fill his regular appointment. H. H. Padgett is closing out his stock of goods at cost, preparatory to moving to Arabia.

Anyone having a piano box (upright) for sale, will please address Miss E. M. Creighton, Kingsville, Ky.

The G. A. R. reunion begins today, Wednesday, and will continue until Friday. A large crowd is expected. Boone Flint and family have moved back from Danville and are occupying their home on Church street. Walter Privitt and wife have moved to Somerset.

Miss Leonora Gooch has returned from a visit to relatives at Franklin. John Singleton and wife, of Waynesburg, were with their daughter, Mrs. Carey. Hendricks Hays, of Danville, was the guest of friends here. Conductor Hela, Max Hamilton, of Somerset, and Elmer McCowan, of Science Hill, were here Friday. Will Flint has gone to Tyler, Texas, to join his family.

Miss Blanche VanDeveer is back from a visit to her home at Stanford. This is Miss Blanche's last week here as Mr. Long, in whose place she has been teaching, is about able to resume his duties, and the former will leave soon for Indianapolis to take a course in an institution for the deaf. Miss VanDeveer is a lovely young lady and the many friends she made here will give her up with much regret.

Little Amanda Lee is able to be out again after a critical illness of pneumonia. H. H. Vandiver was in Harrodsburg this week. Pierce Butler is the night operator at the Tower. Virgil Bastin succeeded Cecil Gooch as day operator. Sylvan Privitt, of Hamilton, O., was here this week. Mrs. Rose Howell, of Cincinnati, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Wm. Lane. Mrs. John Williams was the guest of friends at Ludlow. Mrs. Milford Smith, of Tatesville, is the guest of relatives here.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Mississippi Baptists have $96,020 invested in orphanages and $270,000 in college property.

A fund of $100,000 for church extension and missionary work has been raised within the past year by the Baptists of Philadelphia.

There are now 989 churches and 892 Sunday schools of the Christian denomination in Indiana, which during the year have gained 29,539 members.

The meeting at Christ's church, conducted by R. H. Boll, continues with much interest and will last over Sunday anyway. Mr. Boll is a fine speaker and large crowds hear his every sermon.

Rev. J. O. A. Vaught, formerly pastor of the Danville Methodist church, but later in charge of the church at Frankfort, has been made presiding elder. He is the father of Steve Vaught, the versatile local editor of the Somerset Journal.

"The members of the Broadhead Baptist church cordially invite you to attend the dedicatory services of their new church to God, on Sunday, the 29th of September, 1907. Dedicatory sermon by Rev. H. C. Bow." Thus read handsome invitations sent out by that large and prosperous congregation.

It is with sincere regret that the members of the Methodist church and the people of Stanford generally will give up good old Dr. W. F. Vaughan, the splendid pastor of the Methodist church and one of the ablest preachers in the Methodist conference. He has been assigned to Somerset. Rev. T. W. Barker will succeed him here.

A Humane Appeal.

A humane citizen of Richmond, Ind., Mr. U. D. Williams, 106 West Main St., says: "I appeal to all persons with weak lungs to take Dr. King's New Discovery, the only remedy that has helped me and fully comes up to the proprietor's recommendation." It saves more lives than all other throat and lung remedies put together. Used as a cough and cold cure the world over. Cures asthma, bronchitis, whooping cough, quinsy, hoarseness, and phthisis, stops hemorrhages of the lungs and builds them up. Guaranteed at Penny's Drug Store, 50c. and $1. Trial bottle free.

If money talks,
As some folks tell,
To most of us
It says: "Farewell."

One of the worst features of kidney trouble is that it is an insidious disease and before the victim realizes his danger he may have a fatal malady. Take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first sign of trouble as it corrects irregularities and prevents Bright's disease and diabetes. Penny's Drug Store.

Augustus Plantier, 84, a member of the Odd Fellows Lodge for 50 years and chaplain for 20 years, died in Madison.

Friends here of Mr. Samuel Joseph Burch have received invitations to his marriage on Oct. 9 to Miss Caroline Thompson, of Itolige, Ala. The ceremony will occur at the Presbyterian church there at 8 o'clock p. m. Mr. Burch is a son of Mrs. Mary I. Burch, of this place, and is a fine young man.

Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by One Dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

I was so weak from an attack of diarrhoea that I could scarcely attend to my duties, when I took a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me entirely and I had been taking other medicine for nine days without relief. I heartily recommend this remedy as being the best to my knowledge for bowel complaints.—R. G. Stewart, of the firm of Stewart & Bro., Greenville, Ala. For sale by all druggists.

Thirty persons were drowned and 100 houses were burned at a mine near Kotaro, Japan. A fire started in the mining works, and while attempts were being made to save the mine the water reservoir was broken, flooding a portion of the village.

Had Tetter for Thirty Years.

I have suffered with tetter for thirty years and have tried almost countless remedies with little, if any, relief. Three boxes Chamberlain's Salve cured me. It was a torture. It breaks out a little sometimes, but nothing to what it used to do.—D. H. Beach, Midland City, Ala. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by all druggists.

Health in the Canal Zone.

The high wages paid make it a mighty temptation to our young workmen to join the force of skilled workmen needed to construct the Panama Canal. ### THE DEMOCRATIC RALLY.

Good Crowd, Abundance of Oratory, Burgeo For All and a Good Time Generally.

Yesterday was a big day for the democracy of Lincoln county and while the crowd was hardly as large as was expected, it was variously estimated at 500 to 700. Perfect order prevailed and everybody had a good time.

Promptly at 12 o'clock Jailer Merrin rang the court-house bell, which was an invitation for all to come to the two long tables to eat of the good things thereon. They came 400 or 500 strong and for nearly an hour good, old democratic burgeo was enjoyed. Jesse C. Lynn, with Charley Armstrong chief cook, made the burgeo, which was fine. Jesse, no doubt wanting to "heat up the boys" a little, put in lots of pepper and the large tanks of ice water were frequently visited. There was an abundance for all and if anybody went away hungry 'twas his own fault.

After dinner the court-house bell rang again and at the request of the speakers, it was announced that the court-house would be used, Judges Hager and Hendrick preferring not to speak in the open air. A good portion of the crowd could not get in but all who could crowd in did so.

Hon. Harvey Helm introduced Judge S. W. Hager in a few well chosen words. It was intended that Col. T. P. Hill should have this honor but he was detained at home on account of sickness. There was rousing applause when Judge Hager arose to speak. He was a little hoarse on the start but his voice soon came back to him and for more than an hour he held his audience spell bound. He made no effort at oratory but told in a straightforward way how the democrats had managed affairs at Frankfort since they took hold of the reins of government. The republican party suffered severely by the comparison he made in the way the State's finances and other affairs had been handled. His was a convincing speech and we are sorry that space forbids an extended mention of it.

Judge M. C. Sausley introduced Judge Hendrick in a short, but most appropriate talk. He spoke of his ability as a lawyer, his standing as a gentleman and his ability as an orator. Judge Hendrick started out by saying that he had no fault to find with a republican and if there were those of that faith in his audience they need have no fear of their feelings being hurt. He gave many reasons why white men should vote the democratic ticket and especially poor men or those of even moderate means. Judge Hendrick would have the country ruled by brotherly love and pictured the horrors of war. He spoke at length on the trusts and their evils. He showed where 287 trusts have been formed since the republicans came into power. He scored Roosevelt for and aft, spoke on State's rights, referred to the depredations of the tobacco men in his community and many other questions of the hour. He made a splendid appeal to the democrats to stand by their ticket nominated in November last and pledged a good report from his action of the State. Judge Hendrick is a captivating speaker and splendid attention was accorded him.

Both of the speakers declared unequivocally for temperance and ridiculed Nominee Wilson on his anomalous position on the question.

"Business prevents my being present at speaking. Sorry. C. A. Hardin." Thus read a telegram received from Harrodsburg yesterday.

Mr. Archie R. Dunlap, the accomplished reporter for the Courier-Journal, is accompanying Judges Hager and Hendrick on their speaking tour and is making excellent reports of their speeches for that paper. He is a versatile young man and an exceedingly clever one.

"Arrange our route so that we can get a meal or so at the Weatherford Hotel, Hustonville. I remember some good old ham we got there a year or so ago and I want some more of it," said Judge S. W. Hager to the member of the campaign committee who is routing his speaking tour.

MEN WANTED.—Fifty white men for shop work in Freeport, Ill. Must have good habits. Steady work. Send two-cent stamp for particulars to W. H. Hall, No. 90, Winnesheik Street, Freeport, Ill.

THE ladies of the Christian church of Crab Orchard will give an ice cream supper at the residence of Mr. Spears Fisher this evening. Go and get refreshed and at the same time help a good cause.

DIED ON TRAIN.—L. Gratz, traveling salesman out of Louisville, died of heart trouble on No. 21 near here last night and the remains were turned over to Undertaker McClary, who will prepare them for burial and ship them to his late home at Knoxville at noon to-day.

WILL WAIT FOR COOLER WEATHER.—The management of the rink has decided that it is best to "hold up" with the rink until the weather gets cooler.

So after to-night the doors will close until old Sol gets less liberal with his hot rays. To-night's rink may be the last for some time, so if you want to skate you had better be on hand. The doors will be open at 7:30 and skating will continue several hours. Rink Club.
